

Wedding To Do list

Twelve to ten months before the wedding
SR	Done?	Task Description	Important Notes
1.		Use of Wedding Planning Books. At this point, you have basically done nothing. This is when you are staring to plan using the wedding to do list. The first thing you will want to do is have a wedding book, folder or binder. This will help you be organized always since all the wedding details will be written here.
2.		Plan a Budget. It is of utmost importance to start with thinking of a tentative budget to work with and with this one, you can go adding or subtracting it as need be. But it is advisable to have an idea of what cost of a wedding you're planning to have.
3.		Pick the date of the wedding. When doing this consider different things like the season and the expected weather. So that you don't make a mistake to put a date on a rainy season yet you are planning for a garden wedding or beach wedding party in a stormy season.
4.		Book a Best Venue. Go through wedding journals, blogs and magazines to get an idea for the perfect venue. Once you've had enough, decide on one and book it. The venue booking is necessary since weddings happen all year, round the clock so you might find all the best places booked if you don't plan early.
5.		Choose your bridal party. This is one of the tough decisions you will have to make during this time. You will have to decide who among your friends will get to stand next to you at the altar. You will also have to decide how many bridesmaids you want to have.

6.		Wedding Planner (Optional). If you want to have a wedding planner help you plan your wedding, this is the time to look for one. Be wise. Look at the activities you plan to undertake if they will way you down then you can get a wedding planner or if you want someone who can ensure all activities are well planned then a wedding planner comes in handy.
7.		Research for Best Ideas. Every other detail of the wedding should be at the research stage. You know, the caterer, the photographer, the accessories... at this point, do not make a decision on the details. Take your time to look around. This way you will end up with the best ideas.
8.		Planning about Honeymoon Destination. Start about thinking of a honeymoon destination too. Maybe look at the frequent best known honeymoon destination around the world to get a slight idea(s). It helps to discover places you could never imagine could be romantic around the world. Again stay along your budget when thinking about this part.

Nine to six months before the wedding.

9.		Planning about Your Dressing. At this point from your wedding to do list, you have an idea of what you want your wedding to be like. Communicate with your brides maids; tell them of the colors and design of dress you would like them to wear. Let them see sample either online or from a tailor or a store outlet.
10.		Meetings with Caterers, the Florist, the Photographer, Entertainers. Meet and interview everyone you would like to hire during your wedding... the caterers, the florist, the photographer, entertainers... it is good to look at their documented work as part of the interview to see what kind of people you will be dealing with
11.		Book for the priest. If counseling is a must before the priest can marry you, start it at this point.

12.		Go Buy your Wedding Gown. If it is to be tailored start now. This way, you will have time to look for shoes and accessories to go with your dress and if it needs to be adjusted, adjust it.
13.		Bride's Dressing. The bride's maids should also buy their dresses during this period. That means if they are going to be getting ready made dresses or going for a fit out Customized dressing.
14.		Start Making your Guest List. Please note that the guest list will keep evolving as time goes by. Get help with this. It can be stressful and overwhelming. At this point you tend to forget very important people in your life when making the list thus having your closest friend or family to help you make the guest list would be advisable.

39.		Just Relax... everything is going to be alright. Remember, at this point, there is nothing much you can change. The only thing you can do is figure out is each item on the wedding to do list as been met mostly the payment of the service providers, or just confirming if the wedding planner has taking care of it
40.		Mani-Pedi-cure Time. Enjoy the day with the maids doing Mani-Pedi-cure with them.
41.		Go to Bed Early. Attend the rehearsal dinner and try to go to bed early. You do not want to look tired on your wedding day.

The D-day is here

SR	Done?	Task Description	Important Notes
42.		Take Care of Timing. Well! It is your wedding day, for the bride and the bridegroom, nothing else matters more than you in that day in time. Wake up in the morning and dress up with the help of your maids or your designer. Check time but don't rush yourself or anyone for that matter. Let that work be for the appointed best man or best woman.
43.		Don't Think About What Have To Be or Haven't Done. Clear your mind and think about no other plans and what hasn't been done. Just be that couple waiting to speak your vows.
44.		Wow, Vows Time. Say your vows and make your rounds greeting people and acknowledging their coming. Take photos and be the happy moment for everyone in the wedding ceremony.
45.		Use Wedding Dinner Outfit. The wedding supper or dinner be at your best, probably in a wedding dinner outfit not the wedding gown.
46.		Let go the Crowd's Attention. Then slowly keep letting go the crowd's attention and be there for your mate for the rest of the day/night.

Honeymoon and back
